Neighborhood

Description: Punta Laurel is a small, tranquil coastal village located on Isla Popa in the Bocas del Toro Province of Panama. Surrounded by lush mangroves and calm Caribbean waters, it is known for its serene natural beauty, rich biodiversity, and traditional Ngäbe-Buglé indigenous culture. Accessible primarily by boat, Punta Laurel offers an off-the-beaten-path experience ideal for eco-tourism, wildlife observation, and those seeking a peaceful retreat away from the busier parts of the Bocas del Toro archipelago.
